Increased international student population is an opportunity to be a better University of Washington for all students.

Era Schrepfer Executive Director

FIUTS: Foundation for International Understanding Through Students